About This Content

Ground Pounders is a hex-based, turn-based strategy wargame. Inspired by classic strategy games like Panzer General, and steeped in the lore of the Sword of the Stars universe, Ground Pounders offers a new generation of gamers an updated taste of turn-based strategic warfare. Best of all, you can play it cross platform between desktop machine and mobile devices.

Ground Pounders: Tarkan Campaign lets players control a third faction, the Tarka Imperial Army. Seen as an AI opponent in the base game, the Tark army is now comprised of dozens of different unit types. You will lead your ground pounders across a variety of worlds, increase their experience levels and abilities over the course of two campaigns, and use them to unlock special action cards that can add special effects to single-player games, or to up the stakes in your cross-platform multi-player battles.

NEW FEATURES

- Control a third army from the Sword of the Stars universe – The Tarkan Imperial Army!
- Whole new campaign to play through, comprised of 19 battles!
- New units covering land, sea, and air!
- New battle cards!
- Enjoy a SotSdex filled with new Tarkan Lore details on famous units, personalities, battles and weapon systems

Reach Haodo Kal'Orr before the Humans find him, load him into your APC's, and get him safely to the evacuation area. Avoid contact with the enemy if possible--every soldier lost is a wasted life.

INTEL UNAVAILABLE. AVOID CONTACT.

DEPLOYMENT ZONE

OBJECTIVE: FREE PRISONERS

Scenario: Human Resources

The prank is worthy of Sardo himself, if only you can pull it off. Your engineers have rigged new controls for the Human APC's, and your strike team is loaded into the trucks. Sol Force has some powerful ground forces in the region, and their scouts are moving freely throughout the area searching for Haodo Kal'Orr...and although they don't know it yet, for you. If you can avoid close contact with any of the Human scouts, you can probably load the old man into your APC's and drive to the evacuation area without firing a single bullet or shedding a single drop of blood. If the Humans catch you, however...this will get messy fast.
